Which of the problems mentioned in Exercise A do the speakers have when communicating? a) the person speaks too fast or too quietly. d) you want to make sure of the spelling of something. e) you want more information about a subject. f) the connection is not good and you can't continue the conversation. g) you want to confirm some information. C d1.6 Listen to the same two speakers in a similar conversation. Explain why the second conversation is better. Give as many reasons as you can.Â CD 1-9 Listen to Svend Hollensen, Professor of International Marketing at the University of South Denmark, and answer these questions. Which two marketing strategies does he mention? One product for all global markets. In the 1950s the company that Gerber was now running, since his father died in 1952, added three new plants. One in Asheville, North Carolina; one in Rochester, New York; and another in Niagara Falls, Ontario.[1]. Dan Gerber appeared as a contestant on the 19 May 1955 episode of the TV quiz program You Bet Your Life, hosted by Groucho Marx.[4]. Gerber expanded and diversified the company. He added a toy line in 1955 and had the company listed on the New York Stock Exchange in 1956 for the first time. He also opened a Mexican subsidiary in 1959.Â Shapiro, Eileen C., Fad Surfing in the Boardroom: Managing in the Age of Instant Answers, Basic Books (1996), ISBN 0-2014419-5-0. Obituary, New York Times, March 18, 1974. 2 In the exam students had to choose three from a choice of ten essay topics. 3 There are still people who are reluctant to accept theory of evolution. 4 The professor decided to take moral courage as the theme for his inaugural lecture. 5 The London underground map is best understood as a model showing how the different stations relate to one another rather than a precise representation of their distances from each other. 6 The Peter Principle states that members of a hierarchical group will usually end up being promoted to the point at which they become incompetent.
