History 1900 to 2000. From Chemicals to High Pressure. Canadian Fire Fighters Museum > Firefighting History > History 1900 to 2000. Firefighting enters the modern era. Vintage Fire Crew with Fire Chief at centre. In the early 1900s rubber-lined duck coats and rubber boots became universal and were considered more practical for firefighting in Canadian climates. The colour of the gear slowly changed from the all black coats to something more visible. With the invention of the internal combustion engine in the late 19th century, horse-drawn steam engines were gradually replaced; first Important People From Canadian History. In addition to the prime ministers of Canada, Canadian history has been shaped by a diverse array of important people. Here are 30 of the most notable. See also the chapter on famous Canadians. Early History. John Cabot (c. 1449-c. 1499). Cabot is the first European known to have sailed to the continent of North America, making a successful 1497 voyage from England to somewhere in Atlantic Canada. Very few hard facts are known about Cabot or his trip, but his journey is recognized as an important symbolic start point for the story of European settlement... Joe Smallwood (1900-1991).
