Lighten Our Darkness

By Douglas John Hall

C S S Publishing Company. Paperback. Condition: New. 354 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 6.1in. x 0.9in.----- Revised and with a Foreword by David J. Students, laypersons, clergy, and many others will find here a gripping critique of modern Western culture and a way toward genuine Christian faith in challenging times. Mind-shaking and spirit-shaking. -- John C. Bennett One of the best and most constructive theological critiques of culture and religion to come along in a good while. -- Larry Rasmussen I believe this is an important book. I know that it is stimulating and provocative--almost maddeningly so. . . . Thoughtful Christians need to reckon with the ideas contained in this book. -- Edgar M. Carlson, The Lutheran...

Lighten our darkness was written as a special tribute to the choir in March 1918. Fellowes recalled that it was sung on one or two occasions at St George's in that year, but after that it was forgotten. In November 1935 it surfaced after Fellowes was sent the manuscript score by Walford Davies. Lighten Our Darkness - Music for The Close Of Day. 30 Songs. More by John Rutter & The Cambridge Singers.
