We've had many animal encounters around the world on all seven continents. We're rounding up the best wildlife experiences you cannot miss. Wildlife in the Antarctic don't see a lot of humans so when you land on the island or paddle around the peninsula, animals come out to take a look and see what's up. Penguins are the most curious creatures and if you are very still, they will waddle right up to you and peck at your clothes. We were on a base camp adventure with Canada Parks and all week we had seen grizzlies in the distance. Just as we were about to catch our bush plane out, a grizzly mama with two cubs walked right by our camp and spent a good 15 minutes swimming in the water, burrowing in the ground and frolicking with her cubs.
