'The Gate of the Year'

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: 'Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown.'

And he replied;

*'Go out into the darkness, and put your hand into the Hand of God.
That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way'*

So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night.

He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.

Minnie Louise Haskins (1875-1957)

Order of Service and Intimations

Sunday 5th January 2020

God will do a new thing with His people now.
God will do a new thing, as in prayer we bow,
Wondering at His wisdom, marvelling at his power.
God will do a new thing in this present hour.
Praise the Lord of newness; trust His solemn vow –
God will do a new thing with His people now.

God will do a new thing with His people here.
God will do a new thing: Christ is ever near,
Searching for commitment, sending out a call.
God will do a new thing, touching lives of all.
Praise the God who's faithful; trust the word you hear –
God will do a new thing with His people here.

God will do a new thing for our age and time.
God will do a new thing: to us He'll assign
All His Spirit's blessings, peace from Heaven's store.
God will do a new thing as He's done before.
Praise the God who's with us; trust His love divine.
God will do a new thing for our age and time.

God will do a new thing with His call today,
Seeking new disciples for His pilgrim way;
Bidding us to follow; making all things new.
God will do a new thing, for His Word is true.
Praise the God who offers mercy when we stray.
God will do a new thing with His call today.

God will do a new thing! Praise His glorious name!
For His Kingdom's purpose, every life He'll claim:
Guiding us in service; calming every fear.
God will do a new thing through our joys and tears.
Praise the God of love, whose grace we now reclaim.
God will do a new thing! Praise His glorious name.

It was on the wireless, in the first Christmas of the war, that the king was heard quoting from a poem called 'God Knows' which he had found in a commonplace book: 'I said to the man who stood at the Gate of the Year: "Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown." And he replied: Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way.'

A.N. Wilson After the Victorians

Q: I said to the man who stood at the Gate of the Year . What's the Gate of the Year? Thanks. C. And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: "Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown." And he replied: "Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way." So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night. And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.

Spoken by George VI in his Christmas 1939 broadcast to the Empire these words struck a chord with a country facing the uncertainty of war. As we pass through the gate of the year, no one can know what the new year will bring. But God knows! There's a great lesson to be learned from a generation past. It comes from a message to the people of one of the most powerful nations on earth as they endured a time of uncertainty and fear. More than seven decades have passed, but the truths of this message remain. As we stand at the gate of the new year, let us remember these unshakable truths. A Message to a Troubled Nation. In December 1939, Great Britain was at war. The Third Reich of Nazi Germany had ruled in Germany since Hitler took
