Our Kind of People isn't just a history of successful Black people, its a history of America. Because despite how much White people try to erase the accomplishments of Black people, there would be no American society with us. Our successes helped America succeed. Not all Black history needs to be about misery and suffering. Sometimes it feels good to read about how Black families went from slavery to being successful business owners and millionaires. Through that, we eventually respect or disrespect their identity. A good example of this is Hitler. Who would have thought. Germans respected him. For that, the German still tried to kill him. The type of people who are respected are the ones who generally don't give up when everyone does. They can be good or evil. 3.4K views.
