The book concentrates on the development of the early guitar toward the classical guitar, although it includes a few illustrations and includes a chapter on other genres. On page 22, the author suggests that most persons who decide to take up the guitar are doomed to have never learned to play it well, suggesting that the guitar is the easiest instrument to play badly but the hardest to play well. The book dev A history of the guitar, illustrated with extensive historical engravings and paintings. The book concentrates on the development of the early guitar toward the classical guitar, although An edition of The art and times of the guitar (1969). The Art and Times of the Guitar. An Illustrated History of Guitars and Guitarists. This illustrated history traces the evolution of the guitar from the mouth bow to the Fender Stratocaster. Hittites, Egyptians, Greeks, Romans, Moorish minstrels and medieval troubadours adopted and reinvented the guitar. Edition Details. Format:Paperback. Language:English. ISBN:0306803364.
