Absent a royal family, the American people have developed a thirst for subjects for gossip from on high. In Bill and Hillary Clinton, they have them. Roger Morris Free shipping over $10. This is a highly reputable book with loads of revealing information about who the Clintons are and how history will ultimately judge them. It explains how they could bring so many enormous disasters to themselves, to Al Gore's campaign later, and to Hillary's campaign after that. Even though the Clinton years were ones of overall prosperity, people are tired of their scandals and foul character as detailed in this book.
